STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. JEFFORDS:

S. 466. A bill to provide that "Know Your Customer" regulations proposed by the Federal banking agencies may not take effect unless such regulations are specifically authorized by a subsequent Act of Congress, to require a comprehensive study and report to the Congress on various economic and privacy issues raised by the proposed regulations, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

THE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS PRIVACY ACT OF 1999

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce the "American Financial Institutions Privacy Act of 1999." This legislation will delay the implementation of the "Know Your Customer" regulations proposed by the federal banking agencies. Additionally, this legislation would require these agencies to perform a comprehensive study, to be submitted to Congress in 180 days, on the privacy, freedom of association and economic issues implicated by these regulations. Only with Congressional authorization will these regulations be allowed to take effect.

These regulations mandate that banks identify each customer, find out the normal source and use of his or her funds and then watch transactions in the account to see if they deviate from "normal" and "expected" patterns. If the unexpected transactions seem "suspicious" banks are required under current law to report them to the Suspicious Activity Reporting System, a federal database that can be searched by the Internal Revenue Service, bank regulators, the FBI and other federal agencies.

Mr. President, I have heard from my constituents expressing great concern over the privacy implications of these regulations, and I think a resolution recently adopted by the Vermont House best expresses the concerns of Vermonters. The resolution states,
